A Place To Call

Home

President Wesley Haines is captivated on Halloween eve by the bewitching charms of Delta Zeta Pledge Jane Redicker. Below-Homecoming proves a valuable time for chatting with F. C. alumnus.

President Haines and Vice President Teets give a warm welcome to Freshman Jane Redicker as she arrives on campus.

The Haines Are Gracious Hosts To All

After eight years as President of Franklin College, Dr. Haines was granted a leave for January through June. This was a "first" for College administration. President Haines has earned the following degrees: A. B. Brown University, B. D. Colgate Rochester Divinity School and Ph. D. Harvard University.

President and Mrs. Haines discuss student problems and needs with Student Congress President Jay Wickliff.

"Phil Powell Day" is accented by President Haines as he praises the accomplishments of the Franklin athlete and his Senior teammates.

Celebrations, Friends, Buddies

Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus entertain at the annual DZ Christmas spread held in honor of the senior sisters.

Involved in a myriad of activities, the women of Delta Zeta are active in both school and community activities. The DZ's collected a food basket and money for a needy family at Thanksgiving and also participated in the muscular dystrophy drive. The chapter, along with the faculty, sponsored a wet-sponge-throw booth at Homecoming. They also participated in Flame Fantasy. The pledge class initiated the Turtle-of-the-Week with a huge stuffed turtle given to them by the CCD. Among their activities on campus, the DZ's participated in yearbook, newspaper, campus radio, cheerleading, RAB, Gold Quill, Laurels, Dramatic productions, Spanish Club, Choir, WRA varsity sports, SEA, PEM Club, Crescents, Little Sisters of Minerva, and Sisters of the Sword.

Gretta Walters and Jackie Funke do their thing.

DZ pledges perform with Peggy Wintzer, Delta Zeta field secretary. Miss Wintzer spent a few days with the women of Psi chapter.

LAMBDA

CHI ALPHA

Early in September, Lambda Chi Alpha hosted the annual Watermelon Bust. Students participated in games and ate watermelon.

Directed by Brother Mark Murray, the Christmas party for the underprivileged children of Franklin was highlighted by the appearance of Santa Claus and the distribution of gifts collected by fraternity members.

Raids on Elsey Hall in the fall found Lambda Chi's coming back with four doors. A fee of $10 was charged to each sorority to get their door back. The money collected was donated to the Gateway Learning Center.

Continuing a tradition of past years, the active chapter combined forces to humiliate the pledges in the pledge-active football game by a score of 55-0.

Miss Spindle played by Joyce Kramer grimaces for the audience quite deliberately. Her costume was one of the many very authentic looking properties.

Old Mrs. Wilson was portrayed quaintly by assistant director, ValRae Anderson.

And Present?

Four Nights of "Hedda Gabler"; Females Double-cast

Roxanne Cooley played opposite Joel Applegate in the roles of Hedda Gabler and Ejlert Luvborg. Paula Sorbello played the second round of performances. She is pictured with Dennis Swick as Tesman and Judy Trowbridge as Aunt Juliana.

Each production requires very detailed "behind the scenes" work as Rick Miller would verify. Left—Joseph "Spanky" Bacorn is a familiar Franklin stage name. He portrayed the unscrupulous Judge Brack.

Organizations battled against each other in order to attain a Raft Race victory with SAE winning again.

Ground will be broken for the new Physical Education Building (Fieldhouse) in September or early Fall, President Haines announced at Commencement. The building (shown above in the model) will complete the Campus Center Complex. The Fieldhouse to be built south of the Center will be named the "William and Clarice Spurlock Fieldhouse" who gave a major gift endowing the operation and maintenance of the building. In accordance with the wishes of the late Truman Hoover '24 and his wife, Mildred '23, major donors to the proposed building, the complex was named the "Eli Lilly Campus Center."

Donald Wheeler and Zeke Vifansi had the same idea in a game of soccer.

Football and basketball dominated the intramural program during the fall and winter months. Both sports were dominated by two teams, the SAE's and Blood, the Black Student Union team. The S.A.E.'s captured the "A" league basketball crown and was second in football while Blood captured the football championship and was runner-up in basketball. The league had so many teams enter the football and basketball competition that it had to be divided into three sections, compared to last year's two. The program was conducted by Clark Dickerson.

Men's Intramurals

The Grizzly offensive line blocks Ashland defenders in the extra point attempt. These linemen are Randy Racine (72) and Boro Lalich (52).

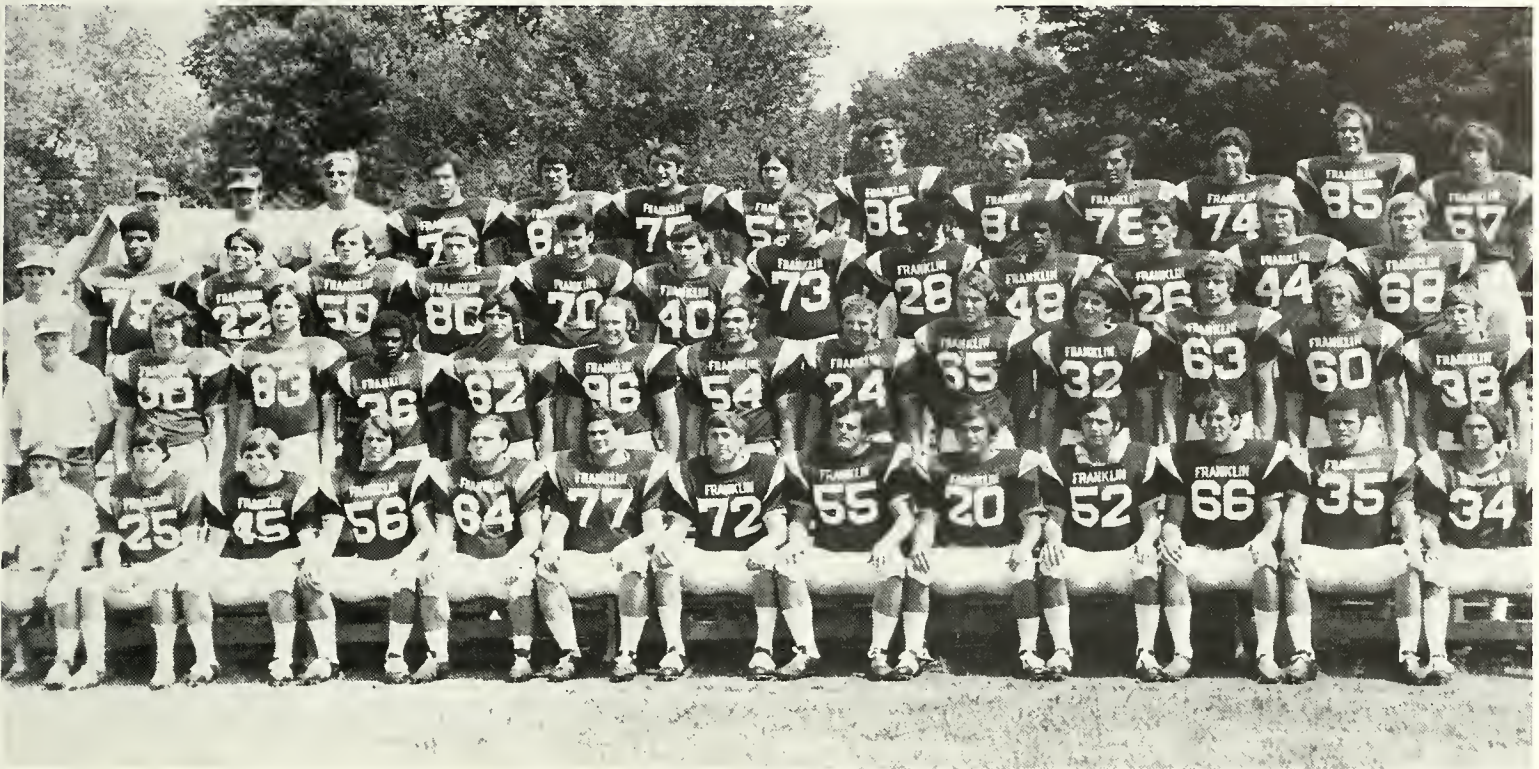

Record breaking quarterback, senior Phil Powell shrugs off a would-be tackler.

Franklin's Gary Cooper shows Grizzly power as he tackles an Ashland Eagle in the season opener. The loss to Ashland, 14-7, was the only season loss.

F.C. Participates In National Playoffs

1972 Football Team—Front row—left to right—Assistant Coach P. Heller, B. Bollier, J. Craver, S. Gonzenbach, D. Penley, F. Vanzo, R. Racine, F. Knue, P. Powell, B. Lalich, J. Cooper, D. Wagner, R. Chiarotti, Assistant Coach T. Hauswald, K. Andrews, M. McElwain, G. Phillips, T. Messer, M. Wisley, J. Wagner, R. Martinez, R. Amos, B. Essenburg, and S. Fowler.

Tom Martin rushes for valuable inches in the National Playoff contest against Northwestern of Iowa. The final score was Northwestern 13, Franklin 6.

Sophomore Mike McClure (38) maneuvers around Franklin blockers Dave Penley (64), Keith Thompson (65) and Francis Knue (55) on ground.

Keith Fiedler, 5'9" Junior (24) attempts to avoid an imminent disaster in the Homecoming triumph over Taylor, 13-10.

Sophomores Larry Edmond and Brian Essenburg join in force to tackle a Taylor Trojan. The Grizzlies won 13-10.

Football

An 8-2 season's record, National Playoff semi-final participant, and a tie for fourth place in the National small college polls---These were the achievements of Coach Red Faught and the 1972 Football squad. Coach Faught also was named to the NAIA Hall of Fame.

Paced by All-American honorable mention Phil Powell and ten other seniors, the Grizzlies won eight consecutive contests including a close Homecoming triumph over Taylor after losing to an undefeated Ashland team in the season's opener.

In the Division II Semi-final playoff game, the Grizzlies met an undefeated team from Northwestern (Iowa) and were beaten in a close contest, 13-6.

Grizzlies Steve Gonzenbach (56) and Francis Knue (55) rush hard for a tackle in the NAIA Playoff semi-final encounter with Northwestern.

Franklin cross country runners start in a rather haphazard position as the long race begins. The grizzlies were the victors in this dual meet at home against Marian College of Indianapolis. The harriers finished with a 7-5 season.

Grizzly Harriers Garner 7-5 Record

Grim determination is marked on the face of Grizzly harrier Birl Schilling.

Led by Freshman Dave Droddy of Jeffersonville, the 1972 Cross Country team recorded the school's second winning season in its history. Coach Marquis' harriers finished with a 7-5 mark which is second only to the 1965 team's 7-4 season. The best time over the five-mile course was a 25:43 made by Dave Droddy in the Big Little State Finals meet. That run earned Droddy an individual fifth place out of 18 schools in participation. The team finished third in the NAIA District 21 meet and eighth in the Earlham Relays. The exclusively underclassmen team will be returning in its entirety next year.

Runners Dave Lutton and Ron Winger pace each other in Marian meet.

Grizzly Cagers Make Trip to the District Finals

Defense played an important role in the 1972-73 season. Freshman John Albright tries to stop a Manchester player.

Left—Steve Dietz goes high for a tip in the victory over Manchester. Right—Dan Helm, high scoring sophomore forward, takes a jump shot in St. Joe loss.

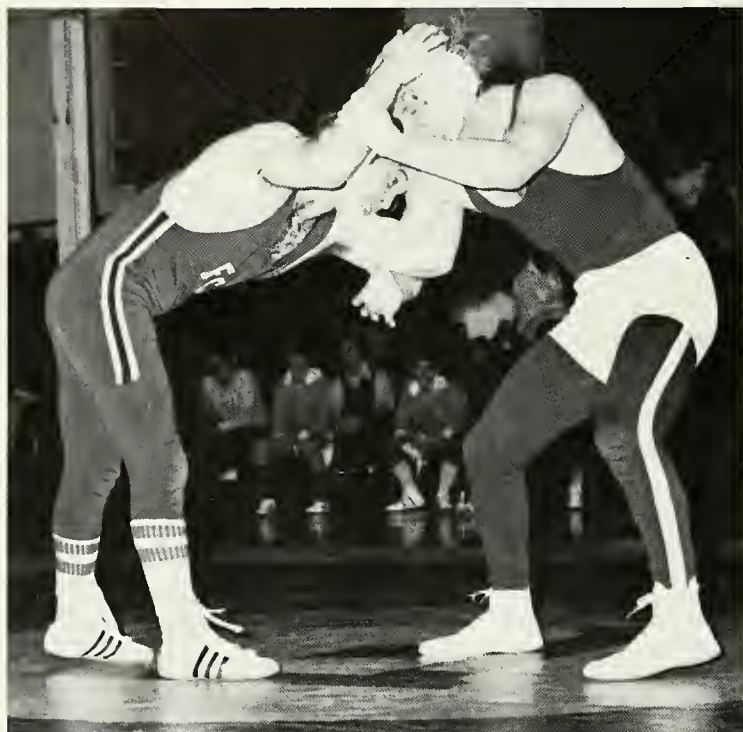

The 1972-73 edition of Grizzly basketball, under Coach Ed Thompson earned the distinction of being the number one independent team in the state of Indiana. The Grizzlies finished with a 14-11 record bowing out in the championship game of the N.A.I.A. District 21 Finals to Hanover.

The team also won runner-up honors in the 1972 Red

Cedar Classic Tourney held at the University of Wisconsin—Stout. FC was defeated in the title contest by the host school 66-63, but Senior Dan Fell was named the MVP of the tourney. The team will lose three players, Dan Fell, Clovis Stinson, and Mike Holcomb, via graduation. The Junior Varsity record was 7-4.

"Butch's" Ironmen Take Districts; Send Four To NAIA Finals

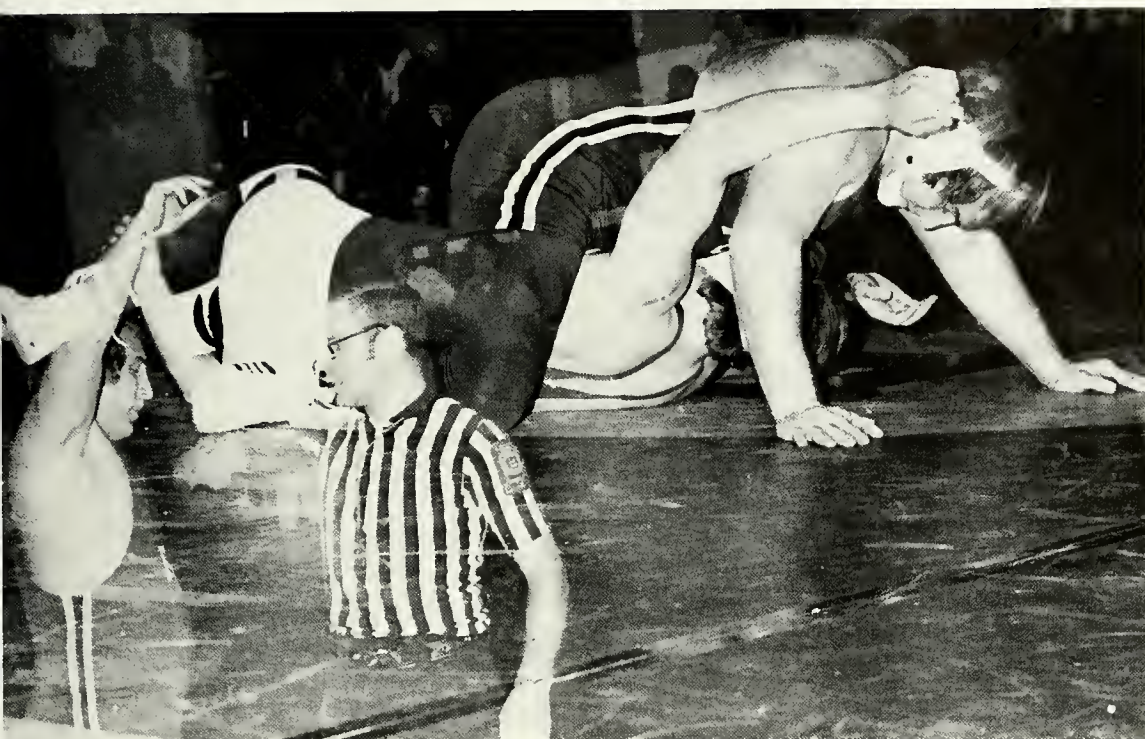

Senior Mick Fiorini who finished with a 14-7 record attempts a take down.

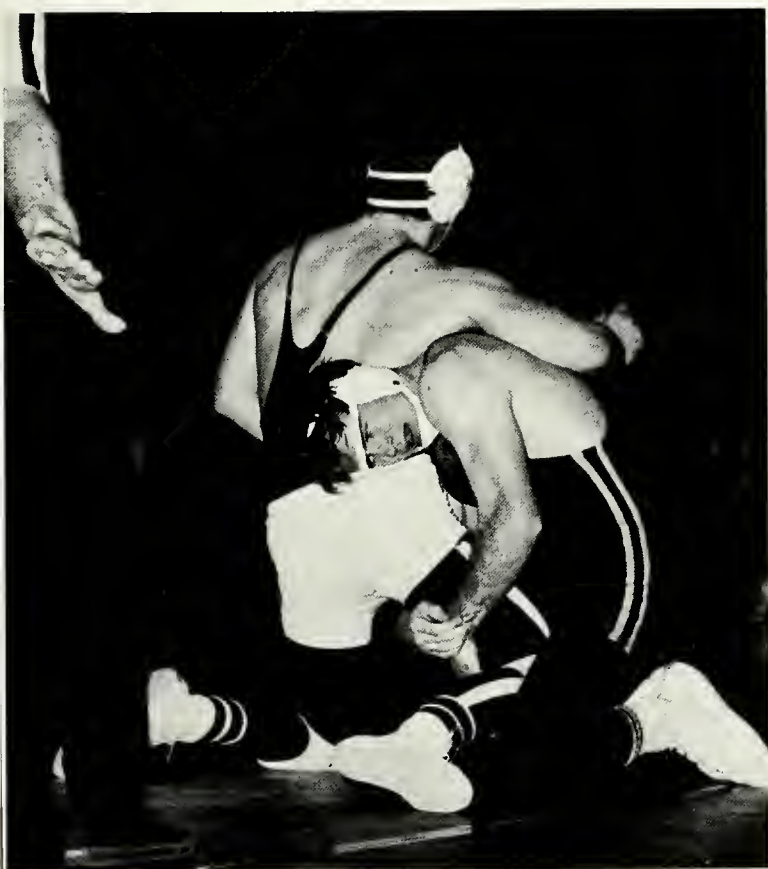

Arnie Brown, district titlist in the 126 pound class, tries for an unusual pin.

Grizzly heavyweight wrestler Larry Janes is shown in this double exposure going for a pin and being named the victor. Janes finished with a 22-1-0 record.

District champ in the 190 pound category, Junior Kevin Kane struggles with his DePauw counterpart for control of the match. Kane had an 18-3 record.

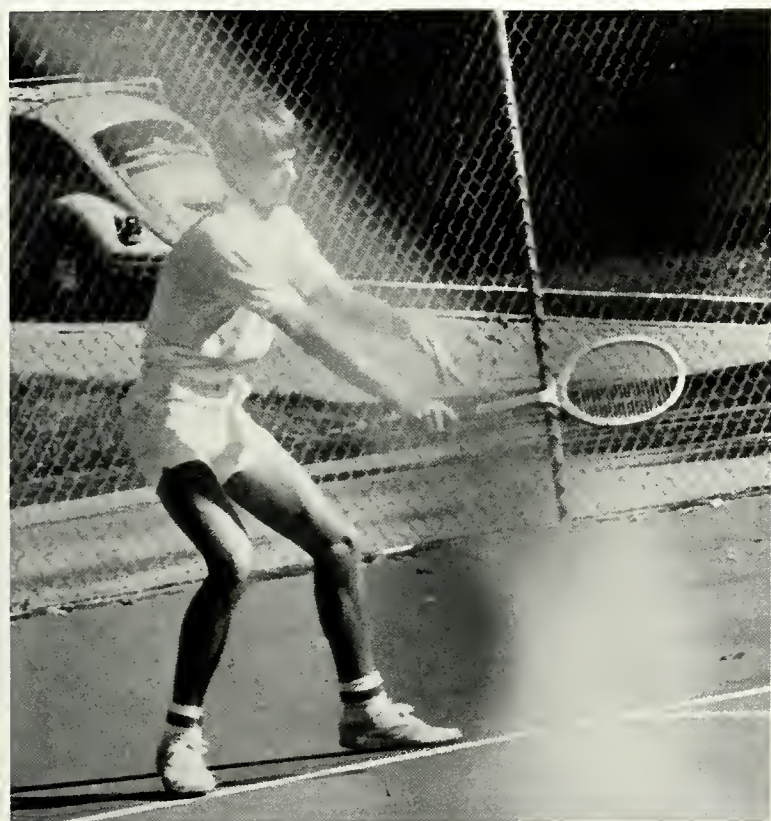

The NAIA District 21 championship, the Franklin tourney championship, a 29-2-1 record and four individual berths to the NAIA wrestling finals were the fruits of success enjoyed by the 1972-73 Grizzly wrestling team.

Coached by Harold "Butch" Lawson and Assistant Jim Graham the team also won the Little State tourney title and was runner-up in the Indiana Central tourney.

Franklin which placed all of its men in the final matches of the District championship meet had four champs in Arnie Brown, (126 lb.), Mike Heppner (177 lb.), Kevin Kane (190 lb.), and Larry Janes (Heavyweight).

Jeff Brown (30), Phil Powell (20), and Mike Wisley (27) combine for defense.

Grizzly Bob Gibson swings hard for a hit in the Rose-Hulman contest.

Pitcher Jeff Brown lets one fly as senior Bob Lovell readies himself.

Studying the situation, Coach Clark Dickerson led his charges to 11-14 record.

Improvement is a key word in describing the 1973 baseball season. After a slow 2-6 start the team won nine of the 17 games remaining on the schedule. The team managed to accomplish this feat despite the many cancellations caused by weather conditions.

Coach Clark Dickerson's Grizzly nine played some of the top competition in the nation as the team took a five-game tour in the southern states during spring break.

Uniqueness

A Year of Events to Make Us Think

Cars, Cigarettes, Garbage. Not only are we destroying ourselves but also Mother Earth who has fed and clothed us—is this gratitude? Inflation becomes a vicious circle and it overlooks no one. By the way, when was your last raise? When was your last job?

Nixon and Agnew Again in 1972

What's a Watergate?

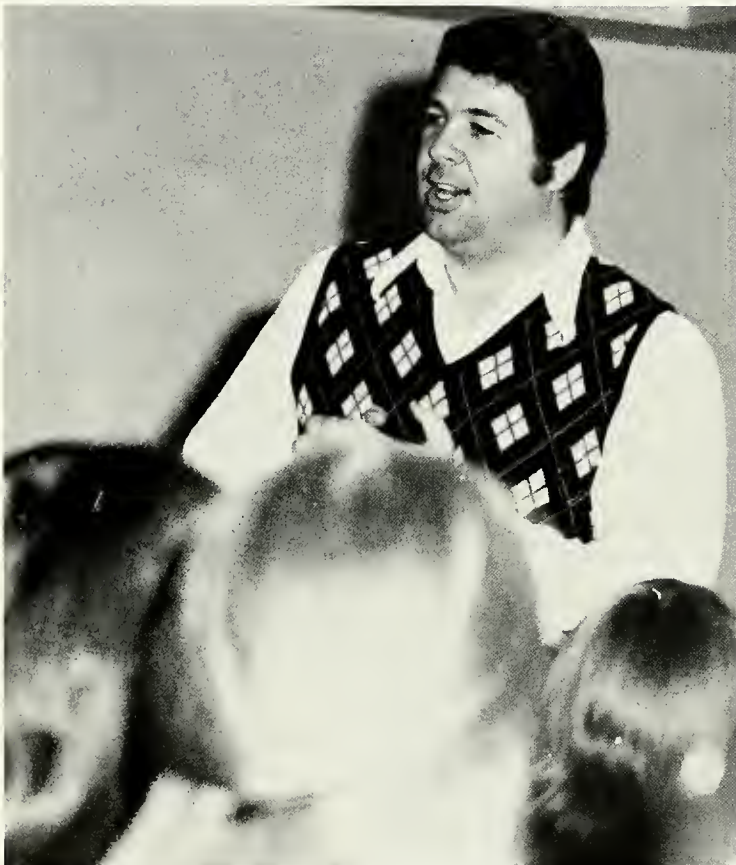

A new face on campus! Unfortunately, serious vandalism and thievery prompted the hiring of a new security guard this year.

Abortion Laws Liberalized

You see it in many different places—waving atop the football scoreboard, hanging above the gymnasium, hoisted to the top of a long metal pole in the center of campus. What has it meant to YOU during '72-'73?

Solemnity, peace . . . the vibrations of minds engaged in a thing called "education" . . . the FC campus is a beautiful place to grow, academically, socially, and mentally.

Fred Storaska, a highlight of the year's lecture series, spoke on a serious social topic in a very enlightening manner, "To Be or Not To Be Raped."

EXTRA-CURRICULAR: 1973 saw Monica Chamberlain, involved in campus activities, become the new Student Congress president.

The Three Phases of COLLEGE . . .

Bottom Left: ACADEMIC: How could you forget those challenging tests, papers, and reports? Didn't think you'd live through finals week, did you?
Above: SOCIAL: Greeks and independents alike find time for a variety of social events.

Life Is A "Cabaret"

Disgust or happiness? What are Renee Walters and Derrick Anderson talking about?

"Franklin On Broadway"—a truly unique event for '73. There is certainly a wide range of talents on the campus.

Almanack Reflects Campus Life

A jumble of ideas and inspirations . . . a mass of pictures and copy . . . disconnected thoughts . . . striving to portray the true spirit and vigor of FRANKLIN COLLEGE in 1972-73.

Putting together 152 pages of student life is a task of mammoth proportions. We sincerely thank all of the following individuals for their assistance in producing the 1973 ALMANACK.
